

ADAMS FAX

All the Fax

The Adams Hosted Unified Communications solution has two fax options available to accommodate the needs of any of business. And both options cost less than traditional fax systems.

Adams Hosted Fax

It is no longer necessary to buy and maintain a fax machine to send and receive faxes. Just add Adams Hosted Fax to the Adams system, and get all the convenience and security of a private fax machine within any browser.

- Have faxes delivered to email or directly into the Adams Customer Administration Portal
- Easily manage features in the Adams Customer Administration Portal
- Requires no capital expenditure or set-up costs
- Easily port existing fax numbers
- Send and receive Fax documents of any length
- Fax to anywhere in the U.S.

All for one low monthly fee

Adams Fax Line

If a company wants to keep or maintain a traditional fax machine, the Adams system can still save money every month, when compared to the cost of an analog line.

- Adams Fax Line service is compatible with existing fax machines
- Get the convenience of one provider and one bill
- Use company-wide
- Easily port existing fax numbers
- Receive and send fax documents of any length
- Fax to anywhere in the U.S.

All for one low monthly fee
